wilburn waters was born in the mountain region of north carolina and spent his early life in wilkes and ashe counties from the time he was three and one half years old until he was seventeen he was a bound servant when he took his freedom he turned to hunting a calling for which he showed exceptional aptitude so great was his skill that it inspired exaggeration in the telling of it today in the area of southwest virginia around white top mountain the stories told about burnie waters have taken on the sheen of legend and one listens partly to a true account partly to folk hero worship the two become more intermingled year by year waters himself started the custom he could tell a story with as much skill as he could trap a wolf or shoot a bear
